

Draft Agenda
Multi-stakeholder meeting on responsible supply chains for precious stones
April 30th 2013, Paris

8.30 – 9.00	Registration
9.00 – 9.10	Opening remarks by the Moderator (Mark Taylor, FAFO)
9.10 – 9.30	Introduction from co-hosts – What is responsible sourcing? (5-7 min each) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Industry (JA?) - Government (US?) - Global Witness
9.30 – 10.45	Session 1 – Initiatives for responsible gem sourcing (5-10 min each) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Diamond system warranty protocol (Jewelers of America?) - Company perspectives (David Bouffard, Signet; De Beers BPPs?) - Responsible Jewellery Council (Fiona Solomon, RJC) - Responsible sourcing for ASM (DDI/ PRADD?) Clarification questions
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 – 12.30	Session 2 – OECD guidance on due diligence for sourcing minerals from conflict-affected and high-risk areas (5-10 min each) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Overview of due diligence framework (Tyler Gillard, OECD Secretariat) - Gold industry perspective on the multistakeholder process (Ruth Crowell, LBMA) - Industry perspective on direct sourcing from conflict-affected areas (Mike Loch, Motorola) Clarification questions
12.30 – 13.45	Lunch
13.45 – 15.15	Session 4 – Opportunities and challenges for responsible sourcing of precious gems <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How do the current tools and schemes available to the precious stones sector enable responsible sourcing? - Are they sufficient to meet multiple overarching objectives, e.g. avoid contributing to conflict through the production and trade of precious stones, protect the integrity of the private sector's supply chain, meet customer demands, enable market access for responsible producers and traders based in conflict-affected and high-risk areas, and incentivize responsible sourcing from areas of conflict and high-risk and progressive improvement? - Where are there gaps? Intervenors (2-5 min each): Nawal Ait-Hocine (Cartier), Karla Basselier (AWDC), Alan Martin (PAC)
15.15 – 15.45	Coffee break
15.45 – 17.00	Session 4 cont'd <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Are there common, clear and practical expectations on the role of the private sector in sourcing responsibly? Is there a benefit for having common expectations? If so, what kind of approach could be used to generate consensus and meet the multiple objectives identified? - Are there lessons from other processes, like the OECD's work on risk-based due diligence for the gold sector, that may be relevant? Intervenors (2-5 min each):

	Industry representative from another supply chain (e.g garments or timber), Mora Johnson (Canada), other?
17.00 – 17.30	Session 4 – Conclusions